

History of Garden Club of Appomattox

(Editor's Note: We continue below a history of the Appomattox Garden Club, written by Mrs. L. L. Crawley. The first installment appeared last week.)

BY MRS. L. L. CRAWLEY

Mrs. R. L. Sheppe tendered her resignation, which the club accepted with profound regret. All of her undertakings met with success. She is a lady of charm and executive ability. On May 28, 1937, Miss Anne Caldwell succeeded Mrs. Sheppe as president. Mr. Mark Claborn talked to the club on landscape designing. He stressed that gardens should not be crowded on confined to a small area. Also that plenty of trees and evergreens help to beautify landscapes. It was suggested that a scrap book be compiled and members papers preserved.

The annual picnic was held in Sears dining hall, due to a severe thunder storm which prevented our going to Tonawanda Lake. A lovely and abundant supper was served. In October Mrs. Sheppe suggested that Miss Williams call the shrub committee together. The shrubs purchased from the Williams Nursery in Lynchburg and planted by same. These were paid for with the Jumbo Circus proceeds, supplemented by P. A. funds.

On October 8 our most worthy and ever accommodating secretary, Miss Corbelle Gills, tendered her resignation due to conflict with business hours. Mrs. Clyde O'Brien succeeded Miss Gills. Miss Corbelle Gills, the sweepstakes prize for 1937.

Officers for the year were: President, Miss Anne Caldwell; Vice-pres., Mrs. George Abbott; Sec'y., Mrs. S. M. Thornton; Treasurer, Mrs. L. L. Smith; Sec'y., Mrs. Clyde O'Brien.

Two prizes for the year were offered by the Garden Club, one to the person bringing the largest number of exhibits and one to the person winning the largest number of blue and red ribbons.

Mrs. Emmet Taylor, of Los Angeles, California, gave an entertaining discourse entitled, "A Trip to the West," which described the beauty and loveliness of the flowers and trees in California.

See Europe on two hundred dollars—so Mr. Oglesby told us when we met in the home of Mrs. W. W. Buck. The talk was interesting and brown.

March 25: Mr. B. B. Hodgins talked on Soil Conservation; Mr. Blair on "Wild Life"; Mr. George Abbott on "Roadside Development"; and Senator Moses on "Billboards and their Rightful Use." The members received much food for their thoughts from these able discourses.

The Appomattox Garden Club purchased thirty three books and one large illustrated flower dictionary with maps. These were placed in the high school library for the use of interested people. Mrs. Thornton, civic chairman, reported that the Town Council had agreed to have the garbage removed once each month. Dr. Fred Drinkwater and Professor A. G. Smith, of V. P. I., spoke to the club on Civic Improvement. Miss Louise Gills dedicated a poem, "Who Makes A Garden?" to Miss Anne Caldwell and the Garden Club. The October Beauty Contest was won by Miss Virginia Crille. Miss Kate O'Brien won the year's sweepstakes prize. Congratulations!

President's report: "As President of the Appomattox Garden Club, I wish to submit the following outstanding activities: 1. Replanting living community Christmas tree and furnishing wire and lights for decorating it. 2. Garden, hose for use on school grounds. 3. Progressive Flower Show in October held in homes of nine members. 4. Had the school grounds landscaped and shrubs planted. 5. The present project is to beautify entrances to the town. 6. Attendance and exhibits increased and more interesting meetings." Miss Anne Caldwell.

Officers for the year 1939 were: Pres., Mrs. George Abbott; Vice-P., Mrs. S. M. Thornton; Sec'y., Mrs. S. M. Thornton; Treasurer, Mrs. L. L. Smith; Sec'y., Mrs. Clyde O'Brien; Messrs. E. M. Turner and E. A. Hicks, Jr., who are connected with the Highway Department spoke to the Appomattox Garden Club on Civic Improvement. Mrs. Prothro, of the Rucklidge Garden Club, talked to the club on this. This was a very informative talk. A report on Roadside Development was made by Mrs. J. C. Caldwell. Also Mrs. W. P. Crowley called the chapter's attention to the Rose Trial which has been held in some sections of Virginia. Viz: from Blacksburg to Williamsburg. The Appomattox club voted to appropriate funds toward this project, provided we can get the trail through this section.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Ivey Holland and M. A. MacLean was appointed to call upon each merchant and see if he would operate in keeping the town clean by keeping his portion of the street swept and free of debris. Miss

Teachers' Salary Average $70 Month

(By Robert C. Harper)

Based on the whole year, the average school teacher's salary in Virginia in 1938-39 was approximately $70.00 a month throughout the State, the average for cities being $127.25 and the average for counties $68.83, according to the report to the Governor and General Assembly made by the Commission to study the Virginia Public School System.

Senator L. M. Robinson, chairman, states, "It does not appear to the commission that it is just to the teaching profession throughout the State to require of them training which necessitates the expenditure of years of study without at the same time increasing the compensation which the teachers may reasonably expect to receive after completion of their training."

The report adds that "properly qualified teachers being the keystone of an efficient and effective school system, it is imperative that more adequate salaries be provided to provide for the payment by the State of $720 per teacher unit."
